

PINK FOR CANCER DAY

We held a pink dress up day to raise money for breast cancer research.

There was a parade after lunch to show off our pink outfits.

Even the teachers got into the spirit of dressing up. They made a spectacular effort.

Here are just a few of the children who were supporting the breast cancer awareness fund-raiser.

Lots of the boys got their fingernails painted because they didn't have any pink clothing to wear.

